Coatings for every product in any color. Solutions that protect your reputation.

After 90 years of manufacturing high-tech coatings, OEMs and manufacturers trust Hentzen with more than their products; they trust us with the reputation of their brands. Because what customers see first—on any product—is a beautiful finish. And that’s key to a positive first impression.

Our coatings aren’t simply paints and powdercoats. They are methodically engineered solutions developed by chemists and technical specialists, tested comprehensively in the laboratory and in the field. Above all, they are our promise to uphold everything you’ve worked for to elevate your brand.
